Uranus was the primordial Greek deity embodying the sky, the air and the heavens. Uranus as the father of twelve titans, he instills fear in the titans, preventing them from overthrowing him and allowing him to keep his power. He was always skeptical, and he soon became concerned that his children might try to seize up his privileged position. And then he ruled out his offspring and put them in tartarus. While his youngest son Cronus is not scared to do something about his father. After Cronus sickled Uranus, Cronus was like his father; he didn't want to overthrow his position by his children. Cronus grew jealous and cruel towards his children, which is why he suspected his children, would attempt to usurp his power. because of being greedy, Cronus uses his strength to capture and eat his children to maintain his position as leader of the titans. And then after Rhea (Cronus' wife) hid Zeus, and when Zeus reached maturity, Zeus defeated his father, Cronus and brought back his siblings, thus winning the war over the titans. Despite Zeus's attitude, Zeus was a great leader.

And he was treated with respect as an allfather who was chief of the gods and the one who assigned roles to the others. Even the gods who are not his natural children recognize him as father and all the gods rise in his presence.

Choose your top 3 characters and discuss the traits that you like about them.

My first pick would be Zeus. of course! I'm amazed at his determination to bring his siblings back from their cruel father. We should never forget that Zeus led the war to victory over the titans. I also like his power that can cause lightning and thunder. It feels like he is the most powerful that any god can't defeat him. Also, because of his great leadership, many gods treated him with respect. Even other gods acknowledged him as the allfather. Next would be Poseidon, I just like him because of his loyalty towards Zeus. Poseidon is a little bit similar to Zeus because sometimes he just wants to express his power over the other important stuff. And they are also similar because they are sometimes angry, moody and they definitely make it clear who is the boss. And last would be Prometheus, since he created humans and I noticed that he also loves humans. I thought he just made humans because he was assigned by Zeus. Not to mention, that I didn't expect him to steal the fire for humans so that they could not die in the cold and cook food. I also like his intelligence because he sided with Zeus so that he could prevent from being punished along with other titans.
